

DATING

APPS

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

What is your favorite fun fact?

A shared source of truth

If you come across a new issue, how do you form an opinion around it? When you have a disagreement with someone, how do you typically resolve it?

Is there something that you have a hard time trusting God with in your current situation? What truths from Scripture speak to your concern?

A shared vision

How would you define your vision? For those who are married, how has your vision changed or adapted over time?

How does God influence your vision on life?

A shared commitment

What has developing your character looked like for you? Are there things you had to confront about yourself in order to grow?

How might this group support your continued development?

Series Wrap Up

As this series comes to a close what is the one thing you will remember about this series when you reflect back on it?

What is the next step you're currently working on as a result of this series? How might we support you in that step?

