

BREAK  FREE

QUESTIONS

What is the dirtiest job you have ever done? Are you willing to do it again? Why or why not?

Describe a time when someone served you in a profound way, doing something for you that you absolutely did not want to do. How did that make you feel?

Read John 13:1-17 together.

Why was Peter offended by the idea of Jesus washing his feet (v. 6, 8)? What does this say about his heart?

Like Peter (v 8) might there be ways you are rejecting the way(s) He is trying to serve you?

What might it say about the condition of our hearts when we refuse to let people serve us?

What arenas in your life would be the best opportunity for you to be a servant to others this week? How might we encourage one another?