

TODAY'S SERMON:

“Our Joy May Be Complete”

Ryan Welsh

NOTES:

1 John 1:1-4

That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we looked upon and have touched with our hands, concerning the word of life– 2 the life was made manifest, and we have seen it, and testify to it and proclaim to you the eternal life, which was with the Father and was made manifest to us– 3 that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you too may have fellowship with us; and indeed our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. 4 And we are writing these things so that our joy may be complete.

SUPPORTING TEXTS:

1 John 1:5

This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

1 John 3:11

For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.

John 1:1

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

Galatians 2:20

I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

John 15:11

These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full.

Psalms 51:12

Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and uphold me with a willing spirit.
