Life Group Questions:

1. Reflecting on the example of Barnabas, what characteristics of his life stand out to you as authentic and sincere? How can we cultivate those qualities in our own lives? Discuss the actions of Ananias and Sapphira. What motivated them to deceive the church and pretend to be like Barnabas? How can we guard against hypocrisy and false spirituality in our own lives?

2. Peter confronts Ananias about lying to the Holy Spirit. What does this reveal about the seriousness of lying and deception in our relationship with God? How can we maintain transparency and honesty in our walk with the Lord? Consider the swift judgment that befell Ananias and Sapphira. What does this teach us about the holiness of God and the consequences of our actions? How does it impact your perspective on repentance and urgency in seeking God?

3. In light of the scriptures (Acts 4:36-37, 5: 1-16), what practical steps can we take to live authentic and sincere lives as followers of Christ? How can we foster a culture of transparency and genuineness within our church community?
