

Life Group Homework
May 2, 2021

Getting to Know You

1. What do you hope others will remember about you?

Going Deeper

1. Read Matthew 18:15-35. Discuss the passage with this in mind: Isolation & anger versus relationship & healing.

How does Jesus instruct us to deal with conflict?

What is gained when it is done well?

2. Read Ephesians 4:25-32. How can we be angry and not sin?

What does anger and contempt look like for Paul and how does he tell us to deal with them?

3. By dealing with anger and contempt first Jesus tells us that we must deal with them if we are to have a kingdom seeking heart. What is the Spirit showing you concerning this in your life? With whom is He calling you to start the process of reconciliation?

CONFRONTING THE MURDEROUS HEART
Winning the Kingdom Battle
May 2, 2021

Matthew 5:21-26

Exodus 20:13

Dealing with anger and _____ is the first step towards growing a kingdom heart.

Anger is a spontaneous response often brought on when our will is _____ or interfered with but will automatically grow in _____ if we choose to remain angry.

Genesis 4:6-7

Anger embraced inherently destroys human _____ and life.

Contempt is worse because it is a studied _____ of another human being.

Romans 13:8

Restoring relationships is more important than religious _____.

Psalm 51:16-17

The root issue is we all too often place a higher value on worshipping than on a heart _____ to worship.

Matthew 15:8-9

Colossians 3:12-13

To not reconcile is to allow both our attitude and the cost continue to _____.

Steps to a Kingdom heart.

Humbly seek the _____ cause of your anger.

Learn to see yourself and others through _____ eyes.

Psalm 139

Willingly pay the cost of _____.

Philippians 4:2-3