1 Thessalonians 4:1-12

2 Peter 1:12

So I will always remind you of these things, even though you know them and are firmly established in the truth you now have.

Continued commitment to being set _____ for God.

"The will of God" for the Christian is clear, namely, a life set apart from _____ unto God.

1 Corinthians 1:2

To the church of God in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus and called to be his holy people, together with all those everywhere who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ—their Lord and ours:

Ephesians 5:1-2

Follow God's example, therefore, as dearly loved children and walk in the way of love, just as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

1 Corinthians 10:23-24

"I have the right to do anything," you say—but not everything is beneficial. "I have the right to do anything"—but not everything is constructive. No one should seek their own good, but the good of others.

Continued commitment to a _____ community.

John 13:34-35

"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."

Colossians 3:14

And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.

"This is the only way in which the gospel was meant to _____ society."

Live a restful quiet life rather than a frantic restless life that _____ others.

Take care of your own matters without _____ in others.

Work hard to _____ for your own needs and those of your family.

Ephesians 4:28

Anyone who has been stealing must steal no longer, but must work, doing something useful with their own hands, that they may have something to share with those in need.

Hebrews 10:24-25

And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.
