Icebreaker:

Have you ever been involved in a building project (anything from installing a shelf to building a house)? What was it like? Was it complicated or easy? Did you learn any new skills? Did you enjoy the work or dread it?

Having now concluded our study on the Minor Prophets, which would you return to first?

Discussion Questions:

1. Together, read aloud or listen to both chapters of Haggai.
2. What task have you undertaken with great zeal for the Lord, only later to lose that zeal and grow apathetic?
3. What guidelines might be useful in determining whether a person was putting too much money and effort into their own dwelling and comfort?
4. How does consideration of priorities fit into your budgeting decisions?
5. Why do you think God’s promise of provision was so important to the Jews?

In what sense does this promise comfort you?

6. What is essential to begin, sustain, and encourage the work of God?

7. In what way can you give of your best to the Lord?

Where are the areas in which you find yourself holding back?
