Icebreaker:

So are you an early arriver, on time arriver, or late arriver? (And would your family, friends and church agree with you?)

Discussion Questions:

1. Review the first fact of the resurrection John records.

Did anything about this stand out to you as significant?

Why do you think John believed when he saw the linens but Peter did not (Luke 24:12)?

2. Review the second fact of the resurrection John records.

Did anything about this stand out to you as significant?

What did and didn't the gospel writers seem to care about?

3. Review the beginning of the third fact of the resurrection John records.

(Acts 4:13 reveals the change others observed about Peter and the disciples following the resurrection.)

How does this fact support the proof of the resurrection?

4. Why do you think the facts of the resurrection don't convince more people about Jesus?

5. Would you say faith comes: easy for you? A little bit of a struggle for you? A lot of struggle for you?

Is there any one thing about the resurrection that affirms your faith?

Is there any one thing about the resurrection that plagues your faith?

If yes – have you read any of McDowell's, Strobel's or Habermas' books?

6. Does anything stand out to you about the Apostles' Creed?
