

Nahum

Small Group Questions
Week of August 2, 2020

Icebreaker:

What was the biggest, or most expensive thing you ever returned?

OR

Did you ever experience or use a “cooling off period” which you were grateful for?

Discussion Questions:

1. Review - what is unique about whom Nahum addresses his prophetic words to?

2. Review - the three “The LORD is...” statements:

What is significant about each one?

What is significant about their order?

3. What do you think it would mean for God to be against you?

How would that affect your life, your prayers, your circumstances, etc.?

4. Have you ever experienced a “cooling off” time in your faith?

What happened?

5. What do you need to do (if you are not doing these things now) to increase your love and passion for the Lord?

6. In Romans 8:31 Paul assures us that God is “for us”. It is the beginning of an amazing promise of God being for us in all things. Read aloud the rest of the passage, 8:31-39.

What all does it mean then that God is for us?

How do we respond to God for being so for us?
