

Life: "From the Book of Romans"

A study in the book of Romans, by Julia Schmaltz on 11 –12–17

Text: Romans 5:6-9

While we were still weak, powerless, utterly helpless, not ready, with no viable way to help ourselves...Christ died for sinners, the ungodly who refuse to worship him...he died for you and me.

God showed his great love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us. Romans 5:8

God is _____

- God responds to rebellion against him (unrighteousness) with his wrath. God's wrath is to be feared. (Romans 12:19-21)
- God is not losing his temper. (2 Peter 3:9)
- God's wrath IS his love in action against sin.
- God's wrath is SATISFIED in Christ. (Romans 5:9)

Fear is our response to a present and potent danger. What we _____ our fear on is what we _____ Righteousness is something that happened ___us when we believe.

Holiness is something that happens _____ us. (2 Cor. 5:21, 1 John 1:9-10, Romans 10:9-10)

Challenge: Make a conscience effort this week to practice righteousness. Focus your thoughts on the things of God and thank him for showing his overwhelming love to us by sending Jesus to deliver us.

*OUR MISSION: Inviting people to Encounter a life-changing God
And become passionate followers of Christ.*

TOGETHER GROUP QUESTIONS

1. Tell a story of when you have felt afraid.
2. Read Romans 5:6-9. Reread Romans 5:8. How much grace and love did it take for God to send his son to die for you? Explain the depths of God's love for you. In what practical ways does God show his love for you each day?
3. God's wrath is a response to our unrighteousness and sin. It is easy to see sins like genocide, pedophilia, pornography and murder as sins that certainly need to be dealt with. But what are some areas of your life, where there might be some unrighteousness?
4. Have you ever considered God's wrath in light of God's love? How has understanding the wrath of God changed your perspective on God's love for you?
5. What are some fears in your life? Spend some time praying for one another. Confessing those fears before the Lord and asking God to replace those fears with trust in Him.
