TOGETHER GROUP QUESTIONS

Read Matthew 19:1-12, 16-30. What is God's Word saying to you in this passage? What is God's heart for His people?

In Matthew 19:1-12, the Pharisees approach Jesus on the subject of divorce. It is clear that Jesus felt the need to redirect their thoughts on the subject. In the same way, what do you think society's view on marriage and divorce is these days, and what would Jesus have to say to us?

The rich young ruler came to Jesus wanting to get self approval without sacrifice. In what areas of life do we try to get self approval, or how do we justify our actions or thinking?

When it comes to confronting people of their sin, do you consider yourself a hider, a hurler, or a healer?

What danger do you see in holding someone in unforgiveness?

After reading Matt. 18:21-35, what makes you upset about how the forgiven servant treats his fellow servant? In what ways do you do the same thing in life?

Who do you need to get right with? Who do you need to forgive?

Read Matthew 18:15-35. What is God's Word saying to you in this passage? What is God's heart for His people?

What is your natural inclination if someone personally offends or sins against you? How do you respond?

How does it make you feel when several people have talked behind your back about something, when if they simply came to you first, you could've explained yourself or cleared up a misunderstanding?

In verses 15-17, Jesus gives super clear instructions on how to confront people with sin and conflict. How do we alter or ignore Jesus' commands?
