Think of how we feel when we see someone we love ravaged by unwise actions or relationships. Do we respond with benign tolerance as we might toward strangers? Far from it... anger isn't the opposite of love. Hate is, and the final form of hate is indifference... God's wrath is not a cranky explosion, but his settled opposition to the cancer... which is eating out the inside of the human race he loves with his whole being – Becky Pippert .

'Outer darkness' suggests the terrible isolation of the lost, and their eternal separation from the gracious fellowship of God. – AA Hoekema.

...after death they become at last, by their own effective choice, beings that once were human but now are not, creatures that have ceased to bear the divine image at all.” – NT Wright.
