In Genesis 25, you might be able to find yourself in the story

Three Things I've Learned from Genesis 25

1. Families are Messy

2. Faith Flows Through the Matriarch

3. Find Your Moment

Small Group Questions

- 1) Is your family messy? In what ways, and to what extent?
- 2) Has anything wonderful come because of the messiness?
- 3) How have you seen God's faithfulness flow through your family? (If you're the first person of faith in your family, do you have a vision for sharing it with family?)
- 4) Have you ever recognized and thanked the person who facilitates faithfulness flowing through your family?
- 5) Has there been a story in the Genesis series so far that connects to your story? What is it?
- 6) How can we pray for you right now and throughout the week?
