

Seeking Him - Forgiveness Matthew 18:15-35

Forgiveness means refusing to _____ or hold _____ against people for the ways they have wounded us. It is a unilateral act - not _____ on the other person being _____ or even _____ to acknowledge what they've done.

The _____ has as much responsibility to _____ forgiveness as the _____ has to _____ forgiveness. (18:15)

The forgiveness that we extend to others must be _____. (18:22)

Just like the servant, we have a great _____ to whom we owe a great _____ for which we deserve great _____ and for which He extends _____ forgiveness. (18:23-27)

When we realize the _____ of our sin, we also realize the _____ of God's forgiveness toward us.

- When we realize the _____ of God's forgiveness toward us, this WILL result in the _____ of us extending forgiveness toward others.
- If this is not true in your life, where are you in your walk with Christ?

Do you forgive as the _____ has forgiven you? (Colossians 3:12-13)
Do you reflect the forgiveness and character of God? (Psalm 103:8-13)
