

PART 3: MATTHEW 5:5

To be “poor in spirit” means to be aware that I am _____, I have _____, and I can do _____ to commend myself before God.

A realistic understanding of sin comes before there can be a true joy of _____.

Paradox of power: For a person who willingly _____ himself, there is tremendous _____ on display as Christ works in that person’s life.

Meekness is _____.

A meek person:

- Does not boast about _____.
- Does not worry about _____.
- Does not _____.
- Has a _____.
- Trusts _____,
- _____.

Meekness is essentially a true view of oneself, expressed in:

- _____ towards self
- _____ to others

The meek inherit the earth _____ . (Eph 3:12)

The meek inherit the earth _____ . (Eph 3:6)

To inherit the earth means to be at _____ . (Ps 37:11)