Death that Brings Life
John 12:20-36

_____ goes _____ (vs. 20-22)
- People of all _____ _____ and _____ Jesus

_____ of the _____ (vs. 23-26)
- _____ to _____ is _____

_____ of the _____ (vs. 27-33)
- _____ is _____ on the cross _____ of _____ (vs. 34-36)

- _____ and _____ in the light

It's time to _____ and _____!

A Deeper Look – John 12:20-36
- What does it mean for the Gospel to be global, as suggested in John 12:20-21?
- How can you actively seek to bring others to Jesus, as depicted by Philip and Andrew in John 12:22? How can you encourage someone in your life to experience the transformation that comes from knowing Jesus?
- How does Jesus' statement about the grain of wheat (John 12:24) illustrate the concept of sacrificial death leading to spiritual life?
- How can understanding Jesus' death as a necessary part of our salvation change how you live your everyday life?
- In what ways do you see God's justice and mercy interwoven in the context of Jesus' death?
- How do John 12:32-33 foreshadow the significance of the cross in Jesus' ministry?
- What is the importance of believing and walking in the light, as Jesus explains in John 12:35-36?
- How does the concept of glorifying God intersect with your personal ambitions and desires? What does it look like for you to deny self and take up your cross daily, as Jesus describes?
- What are some examples of sacrifices you might need to make in order to follow Jesus more closely?
- What specific areas in your life do you need to 'die' to in order to experience true spiritual fruitfulness? In what ways can you serve others and glorify the Father in your daily life?
- How can our church community better exemplify the call to include those of all nations and backgrounds?