

The Unpredictable Lion

We have been reminded over the last couple of days about what will happen in the future with regard to Christ's judgment and what happened in the past with regard to Christ's atonement. Now let's take a look at what we should be expecting today when thinking about Christ's resurrection from the grave.

Have you ever thought about how strange it is that Jesus would present himself as the ruling judge of all people and then almost immediately be killed by the people that he suggested he would one day judge? What a strange turn of events. I bet that the disciples didn't see that one coming. It kind of makes me think "what next" and it makes me wonder if I would expect what is coming. I wonder if the disciples had a hunch about what would be next. I wonder if they were wrong again. Let's turn our attention to "what next".

Matthew 28:1-20

28:4 - some fear and become like dead men

28:8 - some fear with joy and tell their friends

28:13 - some lie about him

28:17a - some worship

28:17b - some doubt

28:16 - we are all called to go!

28:20 - we are all filled with the Lion and the Lamb
