Fun Friday:

Go for a hike, walk or bike ride with someone today. As you are in the beautiful creation of God I want you to keep your eyes open to all the things that are rooted in the ground. As you marvel in the plants that God has made make sure you also express your thankfulness for the love of God that you are rooted in.

Seek Him Saturday:

I encourage you to pray through Ephesians 3:11-13 and Ephesians 3:14-19. Lord thank you for giving us access to come into your presence in prayer. Lord may we be confident as we approach your throne knowing that you hear us and will answer us. In good times and bad times you invite us to be authentic before you for you love us. Lord strengthen us in our inner beings by the power of your Spirit so that we can start to understand more and more about your love!

Send It Sunday:

We have spent the week seeking to understand the love of God more. We also learned that to live in the love of God we must actively meet the needs of others. Bless someone today with an act of love and then share why you did it. Jesus loves you so show that love to others!
