

About This Resource

Do you know who the one true God is?

Who holds control in your life?

Who or what do you worship the most?

What does it look like to be gracious and just?

Who has never broken a promise?

This month we will be looking at 1 and 2 Kings and who God is. During this month we will get to know the one true God who is in control of all things, who deserves all worship and shows us how to be gracious, just and keep our promises. There is no one like our God and we pray we all come to know Him better as we walk through this curriculum.

Each session includes (60 – 75 minutes):

- ❖ Share Time: An opportunity for people to share where they saw God this week. (7 minutes)
- ❖ Connection Time: An activity to grow in relationship with each other. (8 minutes)
- ❖ Worship: Songs that speak the truth of the session. (10-15 minutes)
- ❖ Teaching: A video clip that dives into the chapter. (15-20 minutes)
- ❖ Scripture Memory: Tools to hide the word of God in your heart. (5-7 minutes)

Lesson #4: God Is A Just And Gracious Lawgiver

What you will need for this lesson:

$5 gift cards for each person in your group

Setup:

- Have the song videos and teaching videos pulled up on the computer.
- Prepare the tool for memorizing scripture.
- Put a list of past scriptures on the board to go over.
- Print a copy of the daily tools for each attendee.

Curriculum Note: As you walk through each daily tool, have your group write down who or when they could use that tool this week. This curriculum is a call and an expectation of action in this world. Let's equip, empower and encourage each other to live our lives 100% committed to Jesus every day.

Welcome: (Includes Share Time and Fun Friday)

Start by handing each person in your group a $5 gift card. Then ask if they would like a bigger gift? Spend the next few minutes sharing with them the greatest gift of all, which is Jesus Christ, as you share the gospel with them and challenge them to do the same this week.

At Full Send we love to celebrate what God is doing and that is why we want testimony time to be a part of every session. We believe that God has been moving throughout the week and want to celebrate with each other where we saw Him. Before we start talking about the books of 1st and 2nd Kings let's share what God has been doing in our lives this week! After a few people have shared praise God for His movement in your lives.

Worship: (Includes Tune In Thursday)

Listening and singing to God is a great way to connect with Him and hear Biblical truths. Encourage your group to either listen or sing along, whatever is best for them. As they engage with each song there will be a few questions to unpack what they heard and experienced.

Word: (Includes Scripture Sunday, Memorize Monday and Watch It Wednesday)

Before we listen to the message from Will let's read 2 Kings 13.

Today we are going to hear from Will Goemaat about the justice and grace of God

<https://youtu.be/YDdTP9C6Zzw>

Encourage people to take notes on the back of their sheet of daily tools as they listen to the teaching. Ask them what stood out to them from the teaching or the scripture.

Let's memorize 2 Kings 13:23 But the Lord was gracious to them and had compassion on them, and he turned toward them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, nor has he cast them from his presence until now.

(Memory Verse put to song) – Listen to this first

Today we are going to memorize this verse by listening to the song a couple of times. Join in when you are comfortable.

Witness: (Includes Table Talk Tuesday)

Now that we have read and studied about God being just and full of grace ask the group to answer the questions as they would. Then think about how others may answer the questions and how they can turn that into a spiritual conversation.

The questions of the day are: What is a just penalty for someone who breaks the law? Should they ever be shown grace? Who gets to make that decision? What do you think it means that God is both just and gracious?

As we process these questions, we hope that each person is prepared and equipped to use these questions in normal everyday conversations throughout the week.

Let's read 1 Kings 21:29

Truth: God is full of grace and compassion, but also is just.

May this section be an encouragement to those who hear it, and may God fill them with the hope they can have in Jesus Christ.

Closing Prayer: (Includes Seek Him Saturday)

Each week we want to teach people how to pray scripture back to God. Sometimes it is as easy as speaking the text and other times it is using the concepts of the passage to say what is going on in our lives. Let's finish our day by praying 1 Kings 11:9-13 and thank God for His conviction, repent before Him and thank Him for His grace.

Encourage the group to come back with stories of what God did this week and how He worked through these daily tools.

Scripture: 1 Kings 11 and 21 and 2 Kings 13 and 22

Topic: God is Gracious and Just

Scripture Sunday:

Take a moment to read 1 Kings 11:9-13, 1 Kings 21:25-29, 2 Kings 13 and 2 Kings 22:15-20 and write down how God was just and gracious in these passages.

Memorize Monday:

But the Lord was gracious to them and had compassion on them, and he turned toward them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, nor has he cast them from his presence until now. 2 Kings 13:23

Table Talk Tuesday:

Talk: What is a just penalty for someone who breaks the law? Should they ever be shown grace? Who gets to make that decision? What do you think it means that God is both just and gracious?

Text: "Have you seen how Ahab has humbled himself before me? Because he has humbled himself before me, I will not bring the disaster in his days; but in his son's days I will bring the disaster upon his house." 1 Kings 21:29

Truth: God is full of grace and compassion, but also is just.
