

Scripture: Parable of the Tenants

Topic: Provision, Leadership, Conviction

Memorize Monday:

Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people producing its fruits. Matthew 21:43

Table Talk Tuesday:

Talk: How do you respond to being told that you are wrong?

Text: Nathan said to David, "You are the man! Thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, 'I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you out of the hand of Saul. David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 2 Samuel 12:7,13

Truth: We all fall short of the glory of God and need to learn to receive correction with humility and repentance.

Fun Friday:

Enjoy this beautiful fall day and go through a corn maze with a group of friends or family. As you find your way through the maze I encourage you to share how God helps you through the everyday twists and turns of life.

Seek Him Saturday:

Pray through Matthew 21:33. Lord we thank you for your provision in our lives. Thank you for the protection you have given to us and the purpose you have given to us. May we live in those truths boldly for your kingdom!

Send It Sunday:

The servants in this parable knew that death and rejection were a possibility and Jesus knew he came to die to eternally pay for the wages of sin. Today I invite you to come to terms with that call on your life as a believer. You will be rejected and you may face physical or emotional attacks for standing on the firm foundation of Jesus. Once we come to terms with that we are free to boldly walk in the path god has for us! Let's Go!!!!
