

Scripture: Matthew 13:1-23

Topic: Evangelism and Discipleship

Memorize Monday:

As for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it. He indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty. Matthew 13:23

Table Talk Tuesday:

Talk: What is something you wish you had? What is keeping you from getting it?

Text: As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and it proves unfruitful. Matthew 13:22

Truth: There is nothing better than the Word of God. Seek that and everything else will come.

Fun Friday:

Let's be creative tonight and go buy some fresh fruit and make a fruit salad. As you are making dinner together or for a group of friends I want you to think about how the fruit got to your table. As you host your friends tonight for dinner take some time to sow the word of God through prayer and discussion.

Seek Him Saturday:

Pray through Matthew 23:4-9 today. Lord I pray for the soil of my heart as I receive your word, I pray for the soil of the hearts of my friends and I pray that you will help me to sow the word with boldness.

Send It Sunday:

We've talked about sharing the word of God all week. Take time today to help someone grow closer to God, whether that is sharing the gospel with them or discipling them to a deeper faith. In whatever you do sow the word of God far and wide and tend to the soil so that growth can happen.
