

TIME OF REFLECTION

“Creation’s being is God’s pleasure, creation’s beauty God’s glory; beauty reveals the shining of an uncreated light.... It is delight that constitutes creation, and so only delight can comprehend it, see it aright, understand its grammar. Only in loving creation’s beauty—only in seeing that creation truly is beauty—does one apprehend what creation is.”

~David Bentley Hart in The Beauty of the Infinite

“For as God is infinitely the greatest Being, so he is allowed to be infinitely the most beautiful and excellent: and all the beauty to be found throughout the whole creation is but the reflection of the diffused beams of that Being who hath an infinite fullness of brightness and glory; God... is the foundation and fountain of all being and all beauty.”

~Jonathan Edwards (1703-1758), The Nature of True Virtue

“Defy the commandments of the natural law, and the race will perish in a few generations; cooperate with them, and the race will flourish for ages to come.... God has made the world like this and will not alter it, therefore you must not worship your own fantasies, but pay allegiance to the truth.”

~Dorothy L. Sayers (1893-1957), The Mind of the Maker

“Sin comes when we take a perfectly natural desire... and try desperately to fulfill it without God. Not only is it sin, it is a perverse distortion of the image of the Creator in us.”

~Augustine (354-430), North African bishop

“If God is in fact our Enemy with only destructive intentions toward us, why do we experience any good at all? It isn’t surprising that life is painful. What’s surprising is that life is joyful. What do our simple, daily joys mean? Is God pretending to be our Friend, is He setting us up for the ultimate nasty surprise? Or is God sending us signals every day that His heart is loving and kind, so kind that we can go back to Him in repentance and find His arms open to us?”

~Stephen Charnock (1628-1680), English clergyman

“A stroke, from guilt, from wrath, broke Judas’ heart into despair; a look from love, from Christ, broke Peter’s into tears.”

~George Swinnock (1627-1673), English clergyman and author

SERMON – “Oh, Give Thanks to the LORD, for He is Good!” – Pastor Don Willeman

SERMON PASSAGE – Psalms 106 (ESV)

<sup>4</sup> Remember me, O LORD, when you show favor to your people; help me when you save them, <sup>5</sup> that I may look upon the prosperity of your chosen ones, that I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation, that I may glory with your inheritance.

<sup>6</sup> Both we and our fathers have sinned; we have committed iniquity; we have done wickedness. <sup>7</sup> Our fathers, when they were in Egypt, did not consider your wondrous works; they did not remember the abundance of your steadfast love, but rebelled by the sea, at the Red Sea. <sup>8</sup> Yet he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make known his mighty power. <sup>9</sup> He rebuked the Red Sea, and it became dry, and he led them through the deep as through a desert. <sup>10</sup> So he saved them from the hand of the foe and redeemed them from the power of the enemy. <sup>11</sup> And the waters covered their adversaries; not one of them was left. <sup>12</sup> Then they believed his words; they sang his praise.

<sup>13</sup> But they soon forgot his works; they did not wait for his counsel. <sup>14</sup> But they had a wanton craving in the wilderness, and put God to the test in the desert; <sup>15</sup> he gave them what they asked, but sent a wasting disease among them.

faith in his promise. <sup>25</sup> They murmured in their tents, and did not obey the voice of the LORD. <sup>26</sup> Therefore he raised his hand and swore to them that he would make them fall in the wilderness, <sup>27</sup> and would make their offspring fall among the nations, scattering them among the lands.

<sup>28</sup> Then they yoked themselves to the Baal of Peor, and ate sacrifices offered to the dead; <sup>29</sup> they provoked the LORD to anger with their deeds, and a plague broke out among them. <sup>30</sup> Then Phinehas stood up and intervened, and the plague was stayed. <sup>31</sup> And that was counted to him as righteousness from generation to generation forever.

<sup>34</sup> They did not destroy the peoples, as the LORD commanded them, <sup>35</sup> but they mixed with the nations and learned to do as they did. <sup>36</sup> They served their idols, which became a snare to them. <sup>37</sup> They sacrificed their sons and their daughters to the demons; <sup>38</sup> they poured out innocent blood, the blood of their sons and daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan, and the land was polluted with blood. <sup>39</sup> Thus they became unclean by their acts, and played the whore in their deeds.

<sup>40</sup> Then the anger of the LORD was kindled against his people, and he abhorred his heritage; <sup>41</sup> he gave them into the hand of the nations, so that those who hated them ruled over them. <sup>42</sup> Their enemies oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their power. <sup>43</sup> Many times he delivered them, but they were rebellious in their purposes and were brought low through their iniquity.

<sup>44</sup> Nevertheless, he looked upon their distress, when he heard their cry. <sup>45</sup> For their sake he remembered his covenant, and relented according to the abundance of his steadfast love. <sup>46</sup> He caused them to be pitied by all those who held them captive.

<sup>47</sup> Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the nations, that we may give thanks to your holy name and glory in your praise.

<sup>48</sup> Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting! And let all the people say, “Amen!” Praise the LORD!
