

The Kingdom Perspective

The Light of Love

Hello, this is Pastor Don Willeman of Christ Redeemer Church. Welcome to The Kingdom Perspective.

In His famous Sermon of the Mount, Jesus tells us His Church to be a “city on a hill” (Matthew 5:14). By this He means that we are to be a new society (a new social arrangement) visible for all to see—a community of redemption in an otherwise rancorous culture (Philippians 2:14). The church is a foretaste of heaven, pointing the way to the kingdom of God.

Thus, the way we live together as the church is to be the most distinct and attractive thing about us. We are to interact with one another in such a way that the unbelieving world takes notice. Our love for one another functions like a lighthouse, guiding the way to safe harbor.

Jesus put it like this in the gospel of John,

A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.” (John 13:34-35 emphasis added)

Note well, the repeated “one another” references. Jesus’s emphasis is on how we treat our fellow Christians. Certainly, we are to care for our unbelieving neighbors indiscriminately and this, indeed, is a witness to them. But Jesus says the most distinctive thing about us is how we delightfully and indiscriminately love and care for one another—regardless of our differences (ethnic, political, economic, etc.). Such a community is extremely attractive and outrageously rare. Yet, it is this kind of love that sets us apart as Jesus’s people.

Do you actively pursue loving like this?

Something to think about from The Kingdom Perspective.

Therefore when he had gone out, Jesus said, “Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in Him; if God is glorified in Him, God will also glorify Him in Himself, and will glorify Him immediately. Little children, I am with you a little while longer. You will seek Me; and as I said to the Jews, now I also say to you, ‘Where I am going, you cannot come.’ A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, even as I have loved you, that you also love one another. By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another.”

~ John 13:31-35 (NASB)

Do all things without complaining or arguments; so that you will prove yourselves to be blameless and innocent, children of God above reproach in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you appear as lights in the world, holding firmly the word of life, so that on the day of Christ I can take pride because I did not run in vain nor labor in vain.

~ Philippians 2:14-16 (NASB)

Thank you for listening to and supporting The Kingdom Perspective! The Kingdom Perspective is a ministry of Christ Redeemer Church of Hanover, NH. To hear more episodes you can subscribe on Apple Podcasts. To donate click here or to find out more about the ministry and resources offered by Christ Redeemer Church visit www.christredeemerchurch.org.