GOD'S COVENANT WITH ISRAEL

God's Covenant Are Spelled Out To Abraham, To Isaac,
To Jacob, And Then To Israel Through Moses

- Deuteronomy 29:1 (NIV) (1) These are the terms of the covenant the LORD commanded Moses to make with the Israelites in Moab, in addition to the covenant he had made with them at Horeb.

GOD'S COVENANT WITH ISRAEL

A covenant is a formal, binding agreement or pledge between two parties

- A covenant is a “life agreement” in which the parties pledge themselves to one another.
- i.e. A marriage is a form of a covenant

GOD'S COVENANT WITH ISRAEL

In the case of God's covenant with his people, His pledge is to be their God and They are to reserve themselves as his people.

- The covenant is based on God's laws and promises for the people
- And on the people's faithfulness and obedience to God.

GOD'S COVENANT WITH ISRAEL

As long as the people lived by the guidelines and commitments of their “life agreement” with God

- They would enjoy a special relationship with him
- They would experience the life and purpose he intended for them.

GOD'S COVENANT WITH ISRAEL

The Covenant That God Had Made With Abraham Began And Is Spelled Out In Genesis 12:1-3

- The Covenant Was Handed Down To Abraham's Lineage
- As The Family Tree Continued God Raised Up Moses
- God Told Moses That The Covenant Was Still In Effect

GOD'S COVENANT WITH ISRAEL

READ: Exodus 19:1-6

- (5) Now if you obey me fully and keep my covenant, then out of all nations you will be my treasured possession. Although the whole earth is mine, (6) you will be for me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.

GOD'S COVENANT WITH ISRAEL

The covenant God made with Israel at Mount Sinai includes the promises God made to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob

- 1. God alone establishes the promises and obligations of His covenant*
- 2. People are expected to accept them in obedient faith.*

GOD'S COVENANT WITH ISRAEL

God's promises in covenant are reiterated to Moses

- God promised:
 - (a) to give the Israelites the land of Canaan
 - (b) to be their God and to adopt them as his people
- Exodus 6:7 (NIV) — 7 I will take you as my own people, and I will be your God. Then you will know that I am the LORD your God, who brought you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians.

GOD'S COVENANT WITH ISRAEL

- God's ultimate goal was to bring the Messiah into the world through the covenant people.

GOD'S COVENANT WITH ISRAEL

Before God would fulfill the promises of His Covenant, He required the Israelites to commit themselves to obeying the laws He gave them

- The Israelites vowed: “Everything the Lord has said we will do!”
- “Without this solemn promise to accept –their part of the bargain -- the law’s requirements, the covenant between Israel and God would not have been established as an accepted “life agreement”

GOD'S COVENANT WITH ISRAEL

Obedience to God's law was always a condition of the covenant for Israel

- God tells them what would happen if his people failed to live up to their covenant responsibilities.
- The penalty for disobedience was to be removed from the covenant community, either by banishment or death
- Disobedience and lack of faith would cause them to lose their inheritance in the promised land

GOD'S COVENANT WITH ISRAEL

An example of how God had warned them:

- Leviticus 26:14-45

For Us:

- Sin, Rebellion, And Disobedience Toward God, Rejection Of His Will And His Ways Is A Great Tragedy
- Those Who Continue In Sin Will Not Be Blessed – But Walk Out From Under The Blessing

GOD'S COVENANT WITH ISRAEL

Obedience To God's Covenant Is So Important

- God did not expect complete perfection from his people. He simply required a sincere, strong and continued effort to do all that he commanded
- God also understood the weakness of human nature and recognized the fact that people would fail at times

GOD'S COVENANT WITH ISRAEL

God provided a system of sacrifices, which provided “covering” and forgiveness for sins --To remove the guilt of sin and to restore the people’s relationship with him,

- The people could confess their sins, offer various sacrifices and renew their relationship with God.
- The covenant would be restored

GOD'S COVENANT WITH ISRAEL

Through his covenant with the Israelites, God intended that people in other nations would recognize the benefits of following the true God and would want to become a part of this community of faith

- Through the promised Redeemer (i.e., Savior, Christ), God would also invite the nations of the world to accept these promises, too. In this sense, the covenant had a missionary emphasis.
