

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

I Do, but Do I? — Part 3

1. Have you ever had a dilemma like the one the Pastor Josh faced with his Girl Scout cookies? What did you end up doing?
2. How does Biblical stewardship, as discussed in Acts 20:33-35, influence your perspective on sharing what you have with others? Can you think of a time when you shared something generously with someone in need? How did it impact them? How did it impact you?
3. Reflecting on Jesus washing the disciples' feet in John 13:1-17, what does this act teach us about humility and serving others? How can you incorporate this principle of humble service into your closest relationships?
4. Discuss the idea of mutual submission in relationships, as outlined in Ephesians 5:21-33. How does willingly submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ contribute to healthy and thriving relationships? Can you think of a situation where mutual submission could have improved a relationship dynamic?
5. What practical steps can you take to cultivate selflessness in your own life? Is there one area—sharing generously, serving humbly, or submitting willingly—that you feel particularly challenged to work on? How can you begin to implement changes in that area starting today?
