

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Foretold — Part 2

1. How do you feel when you hear the story of Jack Lucas or others like it? What emotions and thoughts does it cause to well up in you?
2. Leviticus can be a confusing and difficult book to read – how might seeking to understand it more fully help grow your appreciation for God’s plan of redemption and what Christ did for you?
3. The story of the Fall of man through Adam and Eve is layered with God’s character and His desire to restore and redeem. Reread Genesis 3. Which part of the story offers you the most hope? The most encouragement?
4. Reread Romans 6:5-11. Verse 11 contains Paul’s first command in the letter of Romans. What does he mean by this command and how can you put it into practice each and every day?
5. How does it feel to know that while Jesus came as a sacrificial substitute for everyone – he also came specifically and uniquely for you?
