The Parables of Jesus — The Dishonest Manager

1. Why do you think people love money so much?
2. Read Luke 16:1-13. Why did the wealthy landowner praise the unrighteous manager? In other words, what good can we learn from the manager's bad deeds?
3. What do you think Luke 16:9 means? How is it possible for us to use wealth to make friends who will welcome us into their heavenly dwellings?
4. Read Luke 16:10-12 again. What are some things we learn from these verses about being faithful with what God has entrusted to us?
5. Read Luke 16:13-15. Do you think most people would agree with what Jesus said here: that it's impossible to love both God and money, and that if you love one of these, you will hate the other? Explain your answer. How does loving God or money result in one of them becoming our master?
6. How might this parable impact your life?
