Rev. Ryan French

Philippians 2:20-21, NLT

20 I have no one else like Timothy, who genuinely cares about your welfare. 21 All the others care only for themselves and not about the things that matter to Jesus Christ.

Sharing is Caring

If I'd known I was going to live this long, I would have taken better care of myself. ~Mickey Mantle

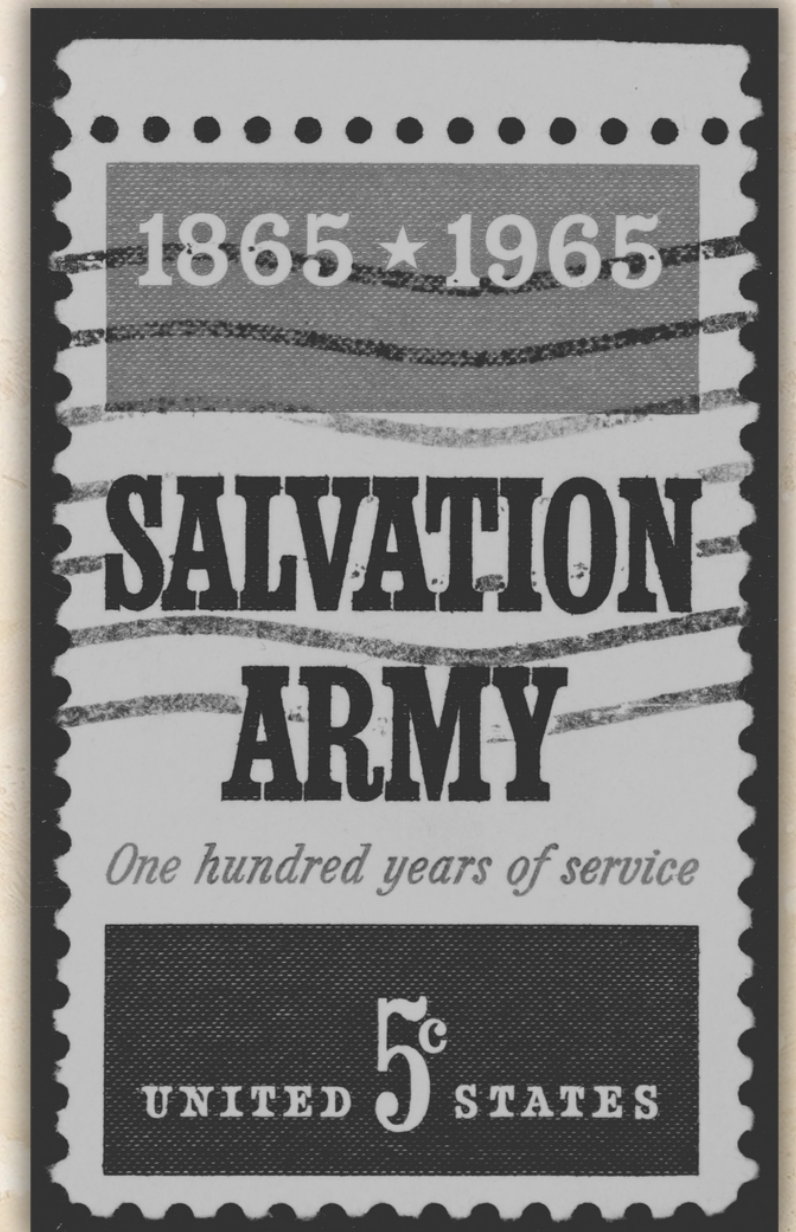

Don't tell your problems to people: 80% don't care, and the other 20% are glad you have them. ~Lou Holtz

It's amazing what you can accomplish when you don't care who gets the credit. ~Harry Truman

Show me where you spend your time, money, and energy, and I'll show you what you truly care about.
~John Wimber

7 Tips to Help Us Care for Our Guests

1. Make a personal commitment to connect with at least one guest every Sunday.
2. Pray for God's guidance when you meet new people.
3. Ask good questions and be genuinely interested.
4. Listen carefully and try to find things you have in common.
5. Give out your cell number or email address, and get theirs as well.
6. Help connect them to at least one other person.
7. Make sure you say these words to them, "We want you here."

Matthew 25:34-40, ESV

34 Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. 35 For I was hungry, and you gave me food, I was thirsty, and you gave me drink, I was a stranger, and you welcomed me, 36 I was naked, and you clothed me, I was sick, and you visited me, I was in prison, and you came to me.' 37 Then the righteous will answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? 38 And when did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? 39 And when did we see you sick or in prison and visit you?' 40 And the King will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.'
