

The Eucharistic Procession

For all of eternity, may they join in song of adoration and procession. A glorious redemption of one before. All the saints present here where few were at the first. Still they sang hosannas with branches and did not return for His second walk. In fullness, He will walk again where hosannas, holy holy holy, will ring through the streets. All as echoes of the first song of cries and tears from His mother, His magdalene, and His beloved. There He bled, in eucharistic procession, to consecrate the first mass. We walk and follow the sweet fragrance of His love, as we shall for all eternity, in the unending procession of our true love.

“Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord– The King of Israel!”
{John 12: 12-16}

“Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. We bless you from the house of the Lord. The Lord is God and has enlightened us. Join in procession with leafy branches up to the horns of the altar.”

{Psalm 118: Hymn of Thanksgiving}

{Psalm 148: All Creation Summoned to Praise}

“Alleluia! The Lord has established his reign, our God, the almighty. Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory. For the wedding day of the Lamb has come, his bride has made herself ready. She was allowed to wear a bright, clean linen garment.”

{Revelation 19: 19: 6-8, The Victory Song}
