WORSHIP SONG LYRICS

KING OF MY HEART

Let the King of my heart
Be the mountain where I run
The fountain I drink from
Oh, He is my song
Let the King of my heart
Be the shadow where I hide
The ransom for my life
Oh, He is my song

You are good, good, ohhh
You are good, good, ohhh

Let the King of my heart
Be the wind inside my sails
The anchor in the waves
Oh, He is my song
Let the King of my heart
Be the fire inside my veins
The echo of my days
Oh, He is my song

You're never gonna let You're never gonna let me down

GREAT ARE YOU LORD

You give life, You are love
You bring light to the darkness
You give hope, You restore
Every heart that is broken
Great are You Lord

It's Your breath in our lungs
So we pour out our praise
Pour out our praise
It's Your breath in our lungs
So we pour out our praise
To You only

All the earth will shout Your praise
Our hearts will cry
These bones will sing
Great are You Lord

LIVING HOPE

How great the chasm that lay between us
How high the mountain
I could not climb
In desperation
I turned to heaven
And spoke Your name into the night

Then through the darkness
Your loving-kindness
Tore through the shadows of my soul
The work is finished the end is written
Jesus Christ, my Living Hope

Who could imagine so great a mercy?
What heart could fathom such boundless grace?
The God of ages
stepped down from glory
To wear my sin
and bear my shame

Hallelujah, praise the
One who set me free Hallelujah, death has lost its grip on me
You have broken every chain
There's salvation in Your name
Jesus Christ, my Living Hope

Then came the morning that sealed the promise
Your buried body began to breathe
Out of the silence
the roaring lion
Declared the grave
has no claim on me
Jesus, Yours is the victory

BUILD MY LIFE

Worthy of every song
we could ever sing
Worthy of all the praise we could ever bring
Worthy of every breath
we could ever breathe
We live for You

Jesus the name above every other name
Jesus the only one that could ever save
Worthy of every breath
we could ever breathe
We live for You

Holy, there is no one like You
There is none beside You
Open up my eyes in wonder
Show me who You are and fill me
With Your heart and lead me
In Your love to those around me

I will build my life upon Your love
It is a firm foundation
I will put my trust in You, oh Lord
And I will not be shaken

O PRAISE THE NAME

I cast my mind to Calvary
Where Jesus bled and died for me
I see His wounds, His hands, His feet
My Savior on that cursed tree

His body bound and drenched in tears
They laid Him down in Joseph's tomb
The entrance sealed by heavy stone
Messiah still and all alone

O praise the Name of the Lord our God
O praise His Name forevermore For endless days we will sing Your praise
Oh Lord, oh Lord, our God

Then on the third at break of dawn
The Son of Heaven rose again
O trampled death where is your sting?
The angels roar for Christ the King

He shall return in robes of white
The blazing sun shall pierce the night
And I will rise among the saints
My gaze transfixed on Jesus' face

I give thanks to you, O Lord my God, with my whole heart and I will glorify your name forever.

Psalm 86:12

BAPTISM STORIES

IAN BONIFE

I was raised in a Christian home and throughout my childhood felt like I was a part of Christ's family. As a young adult, my life spiraled into a dark world of sin and addiction, but there was always a glimmer of light, no matter how dark it got. When God sent me my wife, Emily, my life changed and together we have been following after Jesus for several years. I now need to submit my life fully to Him, dying of my old self and pride, living only to bring Him glory.

ELLIE CHRISTIAN

I grew up in a Christian home, and I have been a Christ follower my whole life. I came to Jesus just a few days ago and it was the best decision of my life. My mom has really helped me know who the real Jesus Christ is and what He has done for me and everyone around me. I am so excited for be baptized and start a new beginning with Him.

ABIGAIL COLEMAN

I fell into faith by love. I fell in love with someone who has a family who accepted me and loved me for who I was and because of them I realized what true Christians are, they love unconditionally. Because of the love from that family and the forgiveness, I have learned from all the services I have been to that is what drove me to Christ. Thank you to my boyfriend, Alex, and his family, for showing me a world that I didn't know.

JEMMA FISKVIK

Being baptized means everything to me; life would be terrible without God in my life. Being baptized is a symbol, letting the world know I am saved, and the Holy Spirit is in me. I surrender my breath to God and my last breath. I am closer to God and always will be loved by Jesus. God will always be by my side, when I'm happy and when I'm sad.

KATY GLASS

Before I was a Christ-follower, I felt my life had little purpose and my morals were inadequate. I wanted to be a better person but I did not know how. Through Awanas and Sunday School, I learned more about Jesus and realized He was what was missing in my life. My parents helped me understand what it means to be a Christian and I gleefully accepted him into my heart. Instantly, I felt a change in myself. The Lord is great and has washed me clean from my guilt and purified me from my sin!

(Psalm 51:2)

EMILY PACE

Growing up in the church, I always knew about Jesus. I was baptized as a baby, went to Sunday school, etc. I always believed the Bible to be true, but I was never engaged with God on a personal level. As I went off to college, I was faced with a new world full of non-Christlike choices. I struggled with a lack of peace and uncertainty with the choices I was making. I was forced to truly evaluate what I wanted my life to look like as someone who believes in Jesus. I officially accepted Jesus as my personal Lord and Savior in April 2011. Since that time, God has flooded my life with peace, grace, and love, even during difficult times. The Lord has been my rock through it all. As I continue to grow in my relationship with Christ, I have now decided to be baptized as an adult. Not only do I accept Jesus, but I want to embrace Jesus. I want Jesus to be the core of everything I do as I go into the future. I want my life to be an example of God's amazing grace! I am excited to publicly declare myself as a Christ follower through baptism. I thank my husband, family, and friends for their encouragement to be officially baptized and continue to grow in my walk with the Lord.

"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead." 1 Peter 1:3

TIMOTHY ROBERSON

I grew up coming to church with my family and have considered myself a Christian for most of my life. But looking back, it is clear that I did not understand what that truly meant. I would "do the things Christians do," but I did not have a strong relationship with Jesus and was apathetic about growing in my faith. Instead, I was looking for purpose and fulfillment in things like school, work, hobbies, and fitting in.

I began to be drawn back to God in my 20s, which was heavily influenced by long-time friends continually inviting me to join them at church. God also made a huge move in my life when I began dating my now-wife Emma, who (with her family) served as a strong example of what a Christian life looks like. My relationship with Jesus continues to grow to this day, but since fully putting my faith in Him, I have seen a transformation of my perspective and mindset. I no longer fret as much about my personal achievement, and happily give over my life to Him. I'm excited to be baptized today to outwardly show this transformation that's taken place within me!

ELIZABETH WEST

I have walked in a spiritual fog for years. I am broken and flawed. I have sinned, and sin. I will and have done wrong. This has left me walking in this fog for too long. Then on a day in April, I felt the warm embrace that let me know...I'm enough. I am! I am loved! Over and beyond an earthly love. A voice told me the truths I have laid out to you are the truths of my Father. Your Father...He has guided you through the fog, to walk with me. This is what I am given. Truths through the Bible. Love beyond what we know on earth. I am ready to live a true Christian life, through faith, prayer, and the grace of God as my Father. To walk with and learn to be more like His Son. In and through this, I believe that grace, blessing, salvation, and a transcendence of soul will free me from my earthly trappings. I believe in a plan...and GOD'S got this.
