FILL-IN NOTES

Confession is _____ our whole self to God. It allows us to see ourselves more accurately as God sees us.

It's the opposite of _____, _____ or _____.

Sin ultimately _____ up the relationship of peace and intimacy between _____, _____ and _____.

Confession can be _____ and _____ when we address the real issue.

Confession is often looked at how we _____ a relationship with God as Christians. But we often see in the Bible that this is also a _____ of someone who walks with God.

Confession prepares us and readies us for the day when all that was _____ will be _____, and all that was _____ now will be _____ by the blood of Jesus.

SHARED EXPERIENCES

EXPERIENCE A: PRACTICE CONFESSION WITH GOD EVERY NIGHT
Reflect upon Psalm 139:23-24. Ask God if there is anything that may need to be confessed from your day. Embrace the forgiveness given by God, and ask that God may lead you to see victory in that area of your life tomorrow.

EXPERIENCE B: ASSESS RELATIONSHIPS AND BEGIN PRAYING FOR RECONCILIATION
Jesus stresses in His teaching that unity amongst His people is imperative (Matthew 5:23-24). Is there anyone in your life that you may need to make amends with and seek forgiveness from? Before coming to worship next Sunday, begin praying for reconciliation, and reach out to that individual.

EXPERIENCE C: TRUST ONE PERSON WITH A CONFESSION
Sometimes it is best to confess our sins to a friend or other trusted individual who may help bear the burden (Galatians 6:1), pray for you, and remind you of God’s assurance of forgiveness. It may need to be the person that our sin has affected. Be careful with this, as confession is meant to restore relationships - not hurt or damage them.
