General Revelation: What can be known generally about God through the World

Specific Revelation: What can be known specifically about God through the Bible

“God shows his anger from heaven against all sinful, wicked people who suppress the truth by their wickedness. They know the truth about God because he has made it obvious to them. For ever since the world was created, people have seen the earth and sky. Through everything God made, they can clearly see his invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature. So they have no excuse for not knowing God.”

Romans 1:18-20 (NLT)

“The heavens proclaim the glory of God. The skies display his craftsmanship. Day after day they continue to speak; night after night they make him known. They speak without a sound or word; their voice is never heard. Yet their message has gone throughout the earth, and their words to all the world.”

Psalm 19:1-3 (NLT)

“God has made a home in the heavens for the sun. It bursts forth like a radiant bridegroom after his wedding. It rejoices like a great athlete eager to run the race. The sun rises at one end of the heavens and follows its course to the other end. Nothing can hide from its heat.”

Psalm 19:4-6 (NLT)

“He determines the number of the stars and calls them each by name. Great is our Lord and mighty in power; his understanding has no limit.”

Psalm 147:4-5 (NIV)

“God is the one who made the star groups Pleiades and Orion; he changes darkness into the morning light, and the day into dark night... The Lord is his name.”

Amos 5:8 (NCV)

“Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars... Let them praise the name of the Lord, for he commanded and they were created.”

Psalm 148:3-6 (NIV)

“When we were utterly helpless, Christ came at just the right time and died for us sinners... But God showed his great love for us by sending Christ to die for us while we were still sinners.”

Romans 5:6-8 (NLT)
