I. Discussion Questions

1. Read Matthew 20:1–15. In verse 15, the manager asks, “Are you envious because I am generous?” When have you struggled with someone else receiving generosity or mercy that didn’t feel fair? What was going on in your heart at the time?
2. Have you ever found yourself “keeping score” of someone else’s mistakes? What led you to do that, and what did it reveal about you?
3. When deciding whether someone deserves mercy or a second chance, what factors tend to influence you? Why do you think those matter to you?
4. Grace-filled love means giving beyond what anyone deserves, which seems like breaking the rules of what’s fair. How does your tendency to be a rule-follower or a rule-breaker affect the way you feel about giving or receiving grace?
5. Kimberlee said, “We say grace is unfair, but what really unsettles us is losing the right to determine who gets it.” Where in your life might God be inviting you to release control and step out of the judgment seat?
