ESTHER: GOD BEHIND THE CURTAIN
"Courage"

How do you find courage when you need it most?

- Start by facing your reality

"When Mordecai learned about all that had been done, he tore his clothes, put on burlap and ashes, and went out into the city, crying with a loud and bitter wail. He went as far as the gate of the palace, for no one was allowed to enter the palace gate while wearing clothes of mourning."

Esther 4:1-2 (NLT)

You must maintain unwavering faith that you can and will prevail in the end, regardless of the difficulties, and at the same time, have the discipline to confront the most brutal facts of your current reality, whatever they might be. -Jim Collins, "Good to Great"

Jesus: "In the world you will have hardship, but be courageous... I have conquered the world."

John 16:33 (NJB)

Esther: "Anyone who appears before the king in his inner court without being invited is doomed to die unless the king holds out his gold scepter. And the king has not called for me to come to him for thirty days." Mordecai sent this reply to Esther: "Don't think for a moment that because you're in the palace you will escape when all other Jews are killed. If you keep quiet at a time like this, deliverance and relief for the Jews will arise from some other place, but you and your relatives will die. Who knows if perhaps you were made queen for just such a time as this?"

Esther 4:11-14 (NLT)

- Focus on the good God could do through you, instead of the hardship of the situation.
- Prepare yourself spiritually

"Then Esther sent this reply to Mordecai: "Go and gather together all the Jews of Susa and fast for me. Do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. My maids and I will do the same." Esther 4:15-16 (NLT)

- Resolve to do the next right thing

"And then, though it is against the law, I will go in to see the king. If I must die, I must die." Esther 4:16 (NLT)

If a man has not discovered something that he will die for, he isn't fit to live."

-Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Speech in Detroit on June 23, 1963
