Discussion Questions

1. What thoughts come to mind when you hear the phrase, “What was enough yesterday isn’t enough today”?
2. Read Matthew 6:24–34. If God promises to provide our daily needs and tells us not to worry, why do we still struggle with anxiety?
3. Describe the resources, used or unused, you have that God could use in His redemptive work or that you could re-align for a more purposeful use.
4. Brian shared a time when he couldn’t enjoy the moment because his heart and focus were elsewhere. Can you think of a time when you felt the same—physically present but mentally or spiritually somewhere else?
5. Explain why you agree or disagree with the statement: “A generous heart leads to a happier spirit.”
6. Our call to action this week: How might God be prompting you to sell, give, or participate for the furthering of His Kingdom?
