“Coming Home”

"There was a man who had two sons."

Luke 15:11 (NIV)

"Not many days after that, the son gathered all he had."

Luke 15:13 (ESV)

Kezazah, - Hebrew word means: the cutting off.

"While he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him; he ran to his son..." vs. 20

The Father ran.

This father runs because that father never stopped loving that boy, no matter how far that boy went from home.

That boy never stopped needing his father, no matter how far he ran away.

This is as simple a message as I know how to make it.

This is just about coming home.

Will you come home?

"Anyone who loves Me will obey My teaching. My Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home in them."

John 14:23 (NIV)
