What words stood out to you in this passage?

Which part of your spiritual journey is easier for you to acknowledge -- that you were formerly part of a 'rebellion against God'; or, that you are now 'a perfected gift that the Lord Jesus has made for himself'?

How is God speaking to you to more deeply recognize the change in status (enemy to friend) that He has brought about in your life?

In what ways do you want to go about building an unwavering commitment to the message of truth that Christ Jesus changed the status of your life by His work on the cross?
