Read Colossians 1:9-14

What sticks out to you from this passage or the sermon?

Paul's prayer for the Colossians was that they would be filled with the knowledge of God's will so that they could live lives that please Him. Over the past few months, what is something you have learned (or been reminded) about God that has helped you to better live a life that pleases Him?

Paul reminded these believers to be thankful that God had rescued them from sin and had transferred them into the kingdom of His Son. In what ways has living with thankfulness to God improved your life? In what ways has living in ingratitude harmed your life?

Many times, life is overly busy and hectic. Some of this is out of our control, and some of it is our choice (even if that choice is simply out of habit). In what areas of life do you need to slow down, seek God's will, and wait for His strength instead of trying to do everything out of your own energy?
