CHECK-IN: Check with the members of your group to see how they are doing and follow up from your conversation from the previous session.

Who was the first person you remember looking up to and following as a role model? What made them stand out?

Read 1 Corinthians 2:1–5

- Why do you think Paul chose not to use “lofty words and impressive wisdom”?
- In your own life, where do you feel pressure to say the right thing, look impressive, or have a “new” idea?
- What would it look like to “forget everything except Jesus Christ, the one who was crucified” in your week ahead?

Read 1 Corinthians 1:10–17

- The Corinthians were dividing themselves by following different leaders. What are some modern ways Christians can get more focused on the messenger than on Jesus Himself?
- Why is it so easy to elevate a teacher, pastor, or influencer instead of simply following Jesus?

Personal Reflection

- Paul reminds us that the power is not in the preacher, but in the Holy Spirit. Have you experienced God working through something simple, ordinary, or even unimpressive?
- The message reminded us that most of God’s work happens in small, consistent experiences of ordinary truth. Where have you seen this play out in your life?

- Jesus-centered living means being so close to Him that when it's time to act, it's Him acting through us. Where do you need His strength instead of your own right now?

Prayer

- Pray for one another to keep Jesus at the center this week.
- Ask God to use your ordinary, everyday faithfulness to point others toward Him.

How can you be praying for everyone in your group this week

Pray to close.
