How did everyone do with last week's DIY? (Pray for unity and justice Monday - Friday this week.)

What makes a good storyteller a good storyteller?

BIG IDEA: Am I too far from God to be forgiven?

How do you relate to Isaiah 53:6?

Why does Jesus care so much about the lost?

READ: Luke 15:1-2

Have you ever felt wronged by the people you trust the most?

Is there a time when you realized the people you trusted were wrongly placed on a pedestal?

READ: Luke 15:4-7

How do we become lost like the lost sheep?

A lost sheep recognizes that it's lost. What can we do when we feel hopelessly lost like the sheep?

READ: Luke 15:8-10

A lost coin doesn't know it's lost (of course, because it's a coin). Who do you know that is lost, but doesn't know it?

The coin was lost as long as it was in the dark. What are things we keep in the dark that create a sense of loss of hope?

READ: Luke 15:11-20

Do you have times in your life when you could relate to either of the brothers from the parable?

Do you experience times of feeling less deserving because of choices you have made?

Who do you know that may be feeling less deserving that you can pray for this week?
