CHECK-IN: Check with the members of your group to see how they are doing.

- ICEBREAKER: Describe in detail the best meal you ate this past week.

READ: Job 1:1-12, Psalm 23:1-6

- What stands out to you in these passages?
- Why do you think God allowed the enemy to test Job?
- Have you ever faced circumstances that felt like an attack from the enemy? What happened? How did it impact your relationship with God?
- “Depth of relationship = Depth of endurance”
“The deeper our relationship with God, the less our faith is shaken.”
  - Do these statements reflect your own experience, or have you seen them reflected in others for better or worse? How?
- How can you increase the depth of your relationship with God and increase your endurance during hard times?

READ: Job 3:3-6, 10:1-3, Job 38: 1-7, Job 42:1-6

- What stands out to you in these passages?
- Have you ever related to Job in his response to his circumstances and his friends? How?
- “Questions = Bitterness or repentance”
  - When faced with a broken world and/or difficult circumstances or relationships, what is your initial gut reaction and response? How does that response impact you, your faith, and your relationships?
- “As we ask our questions of God in the heat of our breaking, it's important we posture ourselves in humility and ultimately in repentance.”
  - How would a posture of humility change your response? How would that response impact you, your faith, and your relationships?
- How can you begin to take the posture of humility and repentance in the midst of brokenness?

READ: Job 42:10-17

- What stands out to you in this passage?
- “Trusting God leads to the fulfillment of his plans in our lives. Even if God has not caused the challenge, he can heal and restore if we let him.”
  - What area in your life may need to be healed and restored?
  - What might be holding you back from fully trusting God with everything?
  - How can you begin to trust him more and pursue healing?

How can you be praying for everyone in your group this week?

Pray to close.
