CHECK-IN:

- What is something you are currently waiting on or wondering about that you wish you already knew the answer to?

READ: Romans 8:22–24

DISCUSS:

- Romans 8 describes both creation and believers as groaning while we wait. What does that tell us about the reality of living in a broken world?
- Why is hope different when we cannot see exactly how something will turn out? What are you tempted to place your hope in when you are uncertain?

READ: Romans 8:28

DISCUSS:

- Paul says, “And we know,” not “we see.” What is the difference between knowing God is at work and being able to see what He is doing?
- Where in your life are you demanding an explanation when Jesus may be asking you to trust Him?

READ: Romans 8:28–29

DISCUSS:

- How do we naturally tend to define “good” as something God does for our circumstances? How does verse 29 expand our understanding of what God is doing?
- Who are you being formed into in the middle of your current circumstances? What might Jesus be developing in you?

READ: Romans 8:18, 30

DISCUSS:

- Paul acknowledges present suffering while pointing to the glory that will be revealed. How does knowing the end of the story change the way we carry what we are facing today?
- What is something you need to entrust to Jesus, the King who already holds the end of the story?

APPLY

This week, identify one situation where you do not know what is next. Instead of trying to control the outcome or demand an explanation, practice praying: "Jesus, I may not know what's next, but I know You reign. Help me trust You and become more like You in this." Look for one way your circumstances may be forming you into the image of Jesus.

PRAYER TIME

Share prayer requests related to uncertainty, trust, spiritual growth, or circumstances that feel outside of your control. Pray for one another to trust Jesus even when you cannot see what He is doing, to become more like Him in the middle of the circumstance, and to entrust the future to the King who holds the end of the story.
