What are things that make relationships complicated?

READ: Ephesians 5:15-21

DISCUSS: What does this passage say about relationships?

In reflection of the passage, what is something you can do to better your marriage (or an important relationship)?

It takes work to make a marriage healthy, what are things you choose to do to make your relationship healthy?

How does the health of your relationship with God reflect on the health of your relationship with your spouse?

READ: 1 Corinthians 13:4-7

DISCUSS: What stands out to you in this passage?

Have you struggled to express love as it is described in this passage?

What do we learn about the love of Jesus in 1 Corinthians 13:4-7?

READ: Ephesians 5:21-33

Pursuing love is a life-long journey. It's a commitment to learn how to submit, respect, and love each other.

DISCUSS: Have you had someone in your life that modeled the principles expressed in Ephesians 5:21-33? Can you share how they impacted your life?

READ: Ephesians 6:10-18

DISCUSS: In your own words, what is the overall message of this passage?

The most important battles in our lives are spiritual, not physical. The quicker we learn that, the healthier our marriage can be.

DISCUSS: What is something from Ephesians 6:10-18 that you can apply to your life this week?

READ: Matthew 7:24-27

What are the benefits of applying Matthew 7:24-27 to your marriage? What would it look like personally?

Pray to close.
