CHECK-IN: Check with the members of your group to see how they are doing.

TAKEAWAY: The Lord's Prayer in Matthew 6 calls us to pray, and teaches us to pray. Prayer is powerful, important, and necessary.

DISCUSS:

- Was prayer something you grew up with?
- What were your perceptions of prayer growing up, and how have those perceptions changed throughout your life?

READ: Matthew 6:5-8

DISCUSS:

- What are some internal and external things that keep you from praying?
- How can the "Keep It Simple" prayer philosophy of Jesus change your prayer life?

READ: Matthew 6:9-13

DISCUSS: The Lord's prayer is a prayer of humility, surrender, and wisdom.

- Which of these is most common in your prayers?
- Which of these is most difficult for you in prayer? Why?
- Does this example of prayer challenge you to pray differently? How?

READ: Luke 4:18-19

DISCUSS: When we pray "your kingdom come," we are praying for the Principles of Jesus, the Priorities of Jesus and the Power of Jesus to be established.

- Is there something you have grown weary of praying for?
- What would happen if HIS Kingdom was established in that situation?
- How can you pray for the principles, the priorities, and the power of Jesus?
- His Will > My Will: Do your prayers reflect a belief in that statement?
