CHECK-IN: Check with the members of your group to see how they are doing.

- What was their favorite part of last week? Are the men in your group registered for The Foundry?

READ: John 1:35-50

- What comes to mind when you think of a disciple? What about a Rabi?
- As you start to understand that every disciple was spiritually challenged, how do you begin to relate to them?

READ:

- John 6:5-13
 - Jesus feeds 5000 with the food meant for one person. What do you see here that Jesus could be showing the disciples?
 - No challenge you face is impossible for Me(God)!
- John 6:16-20
 - Jesus walks on water. What thoughts would you have if you were on a boat on rough waters and all the sudden Jesus appears, and even better, He is walking on water?
 - There is no challenge you will face alone!
- John 13:12-4-5, 13:12-17
 - Jesus washes the disciples' feet. Would you be willing to worship the feet of those God calls you to teach?
 - The path to blessing is humility!
- John 14:1-3, 14:12-14, 16:16-17, 16:26, 16:27, 15:5
 - Jesus gives encouraging words. How do you make the effort to keep God's promises at the forefront of your thoughts? How do you do this when it is the hardest?
 - When life gets tough, remember My promises!
- John 16:1-4
 - Jesus gives a warning. Has there ever been a time you wanted to give up on God? If you did, talk about what brought you back to God? If not, how do you keep strong in your faith?
 - Don't walk away when it gets tough.
- John 20:19-21
 - Jesus' Resurrection. Why is the resurrection so significant?
 - Through My Resurrection there is peace, hope, and purpose!

DISCUSS:

- Why did you choose to start following Jesus?
- If you are still deciding about following Jesus, what questions do you have?
- Where is Jesus calling you to take a step in your faith?
