

Weekend Message Questions
The Bible for Regular People, Week 7
Acts 12

Speaker: Eric Sebastian, McKinney Campus Pastor

To view or listen to past messages, click here.

CHECK-IN:

- Share about a time when something seemed hopeless at first but turned around unexpectedly.
- When you face uncertainty or opposition, what is your first instinct?

READ: Acts 12:1-5

DISCUSS:

- What stands out about the situation facing the early church?
- How does this passage challenge the idea that following Jesus means an easy life?

READ: Acts 12:5-17

DISCUSS:

- What do you learn from the church's response to Peter's imprisonment?
- What does Rhoda's story teach us about prayer and God's faithfulness?

READ: Acts 12:18-24

DISCUSS:

- How does Luke contrast Herod's kingdom with Jesus' Kingdom?
- Why does Luke end the chapter with the Gospel continuing to spread?

APPLY

- Where are you facing opposition or unanswered questions right now?
- How can prayer become your first response instead of your last resort this week?
- What does trusting that Jesus has the final word look like in your life?

PRAYER TIME

Share prayer requests and pray for one another to trust God's sovereignty, pray persistently, and remain faithful even in uncertainty.

Need prayer outside of the group? Submit a request here.