Congregation: I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only begotten Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the Holy Ghost, and born of the virgin, Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into Hades. On the third day He rose again from the dead, ascended into Heaven, and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic* Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.UniversalDoxology - #735*The Baptist Catechism Q.10-11

How Should I Lead Family Worship In My Home?

Family worship is a necessary extension of the church's life, carrying the grace of the Lord's Day into the ordinary patterns of the week. As seen in Calvin's Company of Pastors, the pastors of Geneva understood that lasting reform depended not only on faithful preaching, but on households shaped by Scripture, prayer, and praise. The home was viewed as a primary place of formation, where parents served as the first catechists in teaching the faith, cultivating reverence, and ordering daily life according to God's Word.

At the end of this bulletin, we have provided a Family Worship Guide to help San Diego Reformed Church share in that common discipline. By working through the same hymn, catechism questions, Scripture readings, memory work, and prayers each week, our homes are tethered to the worship of the gathered church. These practices foster unity, reinforce what is taught from the pulpit, and form both children and adults in a steady, durable piety. Through simple faithfulness, God uses family worship to strengthen the church and to establish His truth in every generation.

CHARGE & BENEDICTION

For this reason I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, from whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, that He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might through His Spirit in the inner man, that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith.

Doxology

Praise God from whom all bless-ings flow; Praise Him, all crea-tures here be - low;

Praise Him a - bove, ye heav'n-ly host; Praise Fa-ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost. A-men.

The musical score consists of two systems. Each system has a treble clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The key signature is one sharp (F#). The first system covers the lyrics 'Praise God from whom all bless-ings flow; Praise Him, all crea-tures here be - low;'. The second system covers 'Praise Him a - bove, ye heav'n-ly host; Praise Fa-ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost. A-men.'. The music is primarily homophonic, with chords in the treble and single notes in the bass.
