Minister: Christian, what do you believe?

Congregation: I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only begotten Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the Holy Ghost, and born of the virgin, Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into Hades. On the third day He rose again from the dead, ascended into Heaven, and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic* Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.UniversalDoxology - #734*The Baptist Catechism Q.41-42

But I will remember the years

Congregation: I will also meditate on all

How Should I Lead Family Worship In My Home?

Family worship is a necessary extension of the church's life, carrying the grace of the Lord's Day into the ordinary patterns of the week. As seen in Calvin's Company of Pastors, the pastors of Geneva understood that lasting reform depended not only on faithful preaching, but on households shaped by Scripture, prayer, and praise.

The home was viewed as a primary place of formation, where parents served as the first catechists in teaching the faith, cultivating reverence, and ordering daily life according to God's Word.

At the end of this bulletin, we have provided a Family Worship Guide to help San Diego Reformed Church share in that common discipline. By working through the same hymn, catechism questions, Scripture readings, memory work, and prayers each week, our homes are tethered to the worship of the gathered church. These practices foster unity, reinforce what is taught from the pulpit, and form both children and adults in a steady, durable piety. Through simple faithfulness, God uses family worship to strengthen the church and to establish His truth in every generation.
