

The Gospel is not the message of temporary mercy, but of total remission. Jesus shed His blood so sin could be forgiven, removed, and remembered no more. Eph 1:7

- (Forgiveness) Aphesis means: Release; Dismissal; Freedom; Sending away; Remission

We have the remission of Sin Mat 26:28; Luk 24:47; Act 2:38; Act 10:43; Rom 3:25; Heb 10:16-18

- Remission is more than forgiveness it is the removal of sin and the nature of it out of us
- It is removing the sin and transforms the sinner.” 2 Cor 5:17; Eze 36:26; Rom 6:6; Tit 3:5
  - 1Co 6:9-11 If you are still these things you will not inherit the Kingdom
  - Jesus cleansed us from sin then gave us a new nature Eph 2:1-3; 2Pe 1:4

Jesus did not deliver us from the presence of sin, but from its power and dominion

- The cross did not remove believers from the presence of sin, but it did deliver believers from the power of sin by putting the old nature to death with Christ. Col 1:13; Rom 6:6; Rom 6:14

God has taken away the sin of THE WORLD to fulfill His promise Psa 103:12; Joh 1:29

- Takes away – To remove by lifting them off us and carrying away 1Jn 3:5; Lev 16:1-28
  - Sins and iniquities I will remember no more Heb 8:12; Heb 10:17
  - Removed our transgressions Once and for ALL Heb 7:27; Heb 9:12; Heb 9:26-28; Heb 10:10; 1Pe 3:18
    - You do not have to keep suffering for sin. Jesus did this ONCE AND FOR ALL
    - By One Sacrifice for sin, we are perfected forever Heb 10:12-14
  - Jesus atoned for the Sin of the whole World 1Jn 2:1-2
  - Believing imputes it to your account. Or it accounts to you what Jesus did! Rom 4:22-25

Go tell them, they that believe will be saved... Tell them what Mk 16:15

- The righteousness of Christ becomes ours through faith. When we believe the Gospel, God credits righteousness to our account not because of our works, but because of Jesus Christ Rom 4:3; Rom 4:5; Rom 4:23-25
- The response God requires is repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ Mark 1:15; Acts 17:30; Acts 20:21
- Repentance turns the heart toward God; faith receives what Christ has accomplished.

If you sin as a Christian confess it 1Jn 1:7-10

- When a Christian sins, he breaks His fellowship with God not his relationship
- Confession is not an attempt to regain salvation; it is the restoration of fellowship
- Believers do not live in denial of sin they walk in the light through repentance and confession.
