

Community Group Questions

Read the verses: Luke 10:25-37

1. How do you identify with the lawyer in the story? In what ways are you prone to fall into self-righteous legalism, or where have you in the past?
2. In what ways do the attitude of the Priest and the Levite show up in Christian circles today? What about in your own life?
3. Who might God be calling you to pursue with acts of mercy? What areas of your life need to be redeemed into a mission field?
4. In what ways can you be a better inn-keeper, caring for those Jesus entrusts us with until He returns? What steps can you take in that direction?
5. What does a broken and contrite spirit look like, and how can you make sure you cultivate one?